MS. SOUTH CAROLINA SENIOR AMERICA 2015, REBECCA (BECKY) ROSE-HOLLEY

The Ms. Senior America Pageant is the world's first and foremost pageant to emphasize and give honor to women who have reached the Age of Elegance. It is a search for the gracious lady who best exemplifies the dignity, maturity and inner beauty of all senior Americans.

The current Ms. Senior South Carolina 2015 is our very own Rebecca (Becky) Rose-Holley. Becky has overcome enormous odds from birth, having been born with a severe cleft palate, and after years of surgeries and therapies, she lives a full and joyous life. Becky is a talented performer who has continued her love of singing throughout her adult life and is often showcased by her local church choir and in local productions.

Becky represents the Shriners' Hospital in Greenville, SC as a spokesperson for a continuum of care as a Shriners' Kid from 6 minutes – 66 years old and has adopted its anti-bullying program "Cut the Bull" as her designated Ms. Senior America platform. Becky will represent Edisto Beach and the State of South Carolina at the 2015 Ms. Senior America Pageant to be held on October 22, 2015, at the Resorts Casino Hotel in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Public Comment Period

Walt McLeod – Mr. McLeod, owner of Lot YY, spoke concerning the rezoning of the three lots which passed first reading earlier in the meeting. Mr. McLeod told those in attendance that the procedure was fatally flawed since the Town owns the three lots and should not be able to vote on rezoning something it already owns. Mr. McLeod urged Council to not have second reading and reconsider the first reading. He also suggested Council consider some other way to comply with the needs of the Town other than the rezoning.

Bob McKenzie – Mr. McKenzie, owner of 2409 Holmes Street addressed Council regarding the rezoning. He told Council that there was a delineated boundary (Lee Street) that there has been no encroachment across. Once the Town starts going in to these particular blocks, there is a legal problem by going across those boundaries. He stated that Lot UU has beautiful trees, in particular a large pine and that the Town would be in violation of an Ordinance if the tree was removed. Mr. McKenzie said there was a reference to a Town parking lot in previous minutes, which does not exist. There is on-street parking on Lee Street and no Town parking lot that abuts that lot, "which is another legal problem you may have."

Councilman Anderson moved to go into Executive Session, seconded by Councilwoman Smyer and approved unanimously.

A. Administration Department [SC Code Section 30-4-70(1)]

B. Legal Advice potential legal matter regarding personnel department [SC Code Section 30-4-70(2)]
